SECTION 8
FACULTY AWARDS AND EMERITUS STATUS

8.1 FACULTY AWARDS

Each Fall, the Office of Academic Affairs will solicit nominations for the following faculty awards:

- Mines Teaching Award (Teaching Faculty)
- Mines Teaching Award (Tenured or Tenured Track Faculty)
- Board of Trustees’ Outstanding Faculty Award
- Alfred E. Jenni Faculty Fellowship
- Faculty Excellence Award
- Mentorship Awards
- Excellence in Research Awards (Junior and Senior Faculty)

Details of the requirements for nominations are provided in the following sections for each specific award.

Nominations are sent directly to the Faculty Awards Committee. The Committee shall review the nominations and request full dossiers from the nominees’ Department Heads of those they wish to consider further.

For all awards, the Faculty Awards Committee shall review the dossiers. With the exception of the Board of Trustees’ Outstanding Faculty Award, the Committee makes decision, and recipients are announced at the April Faculty Forum. For the Board of Trustees’ Outstanding Faculty Award, the Committee recommends a prioritized slate of recipients to the Board of Trustees, and the recipient is announced at the December Commencement ceremony.

The Faculty Awards Committee shall consist of Provost (Chair – ex officio non-voting), the Director for the Trefny Innovative Instruction Center (ex officio voting), the Associate Vice President for Research (ex officio voting), the past two-year recipients of each award, an undergraduate student representative, and a graduate student representative.

8.4 BOARD OF TRUSTEES’ OUTSTANDING FACULTY AWARD

The purpose of the award is to recognize a faculty member who has made a significant positive impact on student learning, with special emphasis on teaching outside the classroom. Any faculty member as defined in the Handbook, who has been with the school a minimum of three years, is eligible for nomination. The Awards Committee will consider the following factors:

- Creative achievement, which contributes significantly to the breadth of the students’ classroom learning experience, for example: across-the-curriculum teaching, teaching in multiple departments, or active learning applications.

- Significant achievement made outside the classroom environment such as mentoring or other forms of student communication and encouragement and the active fostering of a learning community.

- Developing and implementing practices that align with the state-of-art in higher education.

With the exception of the candidate CV, nomination letters should be no more than two pages in length, and must include the following components:

1. a statement introducing the nominee and touching on the nominee’s overall merits,
2. a statement defining the significant creative achievements the candidate has made that contribute directly to the breadth of student classroom learning,
3. a statement of activities related to achievements made in teaching outside the classroom,
4. a statement defining the practices that candidate has developed and implemented that align with the state-of-art in higher education, and
5. a candidate CV.

If requested by the Awards Committee, full dossiers for the candidate must include the following components:

1. all nomination materials listed above,
2. Department Head evaluations for the previous three years,
3. letters of support from colleagues and students, and
4. any other supplemental materials deemed relevant.

This award is not intended to be given each year.

The award consists of a plaque, $2,000 deposited into a faculty member’s professional development account, and travel support to national engineering education conference for $1,000.

8.5  ALFRED E. JENNI FACULTY FELLOWSHIP

The Alfred E. Jenni Faculty Fellowship will be awarded to a Colorado School of Mines faculty member, as defined in the Faculty Handbook, who will make institution-wide contributions in teaching effectiveness and educational scholarship during the one-year period of the award. The recipient will have meritorious experience in educational program development and will have a vision of how that experience can be brought to bear in institution-wide enhancements in education.

The following factors will be considered in selecting the Alfred E. Jenni Faculty Fellow:
- A track record of scholarship in educational research and development pertinent to the mission of the School;
- A reputation among students for strong dedication and concern toward their learning; and
- A vision of how, as the Alfred E. Jenni Faculty Fellow, the individual will contribute to institution-wide enhancements in education, and how this vision can be translated into viable actions.

With the exception of the candidate CV, nomination letters should be no more than two pages in length, and must include the following components:
1. a statement introducing the nominee and touching on the nominee’s overall merits,
2. a statement providing selected evidence of a track record in educational research and development,
3. a statement providing a brief overview of how the individual plans to contribute to institution-wide enhancements in teaching effectiveness and educational scholarship, and
4. a candidate CV.

If requested by the Awards Committee, full dossiers for the candidate must include the following components:
1. all nomination materials listed above,
2. Department Head evaluations for the previous three years,
3. letters of support from colleagues and students that indicate a strong dedication and concern toward learning, and
4. a detailed project plan (five pages maximum) provided by the candidate that includes project description, milestones and deliverables.

If awarded, the period of the Fellowship will extend from the beginning of the Fall semester to the end of the next Summer. During that period the Faculty Fellow will be expected to contribute in a variety of ways, including, for example, interact with the Center for Teaching and Learning Effectiveness, participate in the New Faculty Orientation, interact with faculty who are launching new teaching initiatives or who are seeking advice, and interact with the campus at-large in curriculum and pedagogical development. The Faculty Fellow will demonstrate a scholarly approach to this effort, leading to publication in appropriate educational literature.

The Alfred E. Jenni Faculty Fellow will receive a compensation award of one ninth of the base salary, payable either within the Academic Year or during the Summer of the one-year period of the Fellowship. This will not contribute to the base for the purpose of computing summer salary and is not intended to provide release from regular academic duties.

8.7 MENTORSHIP AWARDS (JUNIOR AND SENIOR FACULTY)

In conjunction with the W.M. Keck Chair for Professional Development Education and the Faculty Senate, the Office of Academic Affairs seeks to support and encourage the development and adoption of novel and effective mentorship strategies across campus.

Three Mentorship Awards have been established to recognize extraordinary mentorship activities that go above and beyond regular advising. Successful candidates may have developed new mentoring initiatives, assisted those that face significant challenges or are vulnerable, or created new pathways for growth and empowerment.

Any faculty or staff member is eligible for consideration. Three awards will be issued; one for mentoring undergraduate students, one for mentoring graduate students, and one for mentoring faculty or staff members.

The recipient will receive a plaque and a monetary award of $1,500 that is to be used for mentoring or advising activities. The award winners will be recognized as part of the April Faculty Awards ceremony, and featured on Mines’ websites and Mines’ social media outlets.

The nomination should include the following information:

1. the name and position of the faculty or staff member who is nominated
2. the award for which the nomination is made (undergraduate, graduate, faculty, or staff mentoring)
3. the reasons why the nominees merits the award based on the award description above
4. one paragraph – to be used for the Mines website, summarizing the mentoring achievements of the nominee.

A selection committee will review nominations and make award recommendations to the W.M Keck Chair for Professional Development Education.

8.8   EXCELLENCE IN RESEARCH AWARDS

The “Excellence in Research Awards” were established to recognize Mines’ research active faculty members in all disciplines for their outstanding research accomplishments while at Mines. Two awards are presented each academic year, one for a junior faculty member and one for a senior faculty member. Both Tenured/Tenure Track and Research Faculty members will be considered. For the junior award, at the Assistant or Associate levels and for the senior award, at the Assistant, Associate or Full Professor levels.

The Junior Award is for a faculty member with less than 10 years of self-directed (after Ph.D. and postdoctoral training) research time at Mines or another university or research institution. The Senior Award is for a faculty member with 10 or more years of self-directed research. Note that awards are given for research conducted at Mines. Each award will consist of a plaque and a grant of $5,000 to further research initiatives. The awards are jointly sponsored by the offices of the Provost and the Vice President for Research and Technology Transfer.

The Mines Research Committee will make the selection on the basis of the significance and quality of research and creative achievements. These include:

1. Establishment of a thriving research program evidence for which might include a strong publication record, invited conference presentations, national and international awards, and support of graduate and undergraduate research
2. Outstanding research accomplishments that have received national and/or international recognition
3. Enhancing the reputation of Mines through their research
4. Supporting research across campus via intra- and interdepartmental collaborations

A Mines faculty member or a Mines department, division, or program can nominate candidates for the award in both categories by sending a letter to Mines’ Research Committee chair summarizing in layperson’s terms the nominee’s research accomplishments while at Mines and the nominee’s curriculum vitae. The committee will select up to six candidates, for whom external letters of recommendation will be sought. For the selected candidates, the faculty member making the nomination will be asked to solicit external letters from three nationally and internationally recognized experts familiar with the nominee’s research work. Up to two award recipients will be selected from the short-list by the Research Committee and their names will be forwarded to the Faculty Senate for approval. The awards will be presented at the faculty forum at the end of April.

8.9 NOMINATING FACULTY FOR EMERITUS TITLE

Governing Policies:

Section 4.1.5, Faculty Handbook – Emeritus Faculty Appointments

Procedure:

Section 4.1.5 of the Faculty Handbook describes emeritus faculty appointments. In Spring, the Office of Academic Affairs will solicit nominations for emeritus status from Department Heads. Department Heads should work in consultation with their departmental promotion and tenure committee to nominate retired, tenured or teaching faculty members who have served full-time at CSM for 10 years or more.

Department Heads should submit a formal memorandum of nomination to the Provost. The memo should include the date of retirement, the requested emeritus title (e.g., Emeritus Associate Professor of Geophysics), and a short, one-paragraph memo that includes, but is not limited to, the following information:

- Dates of degrees and degree-granting universities
- Date joined CSM
- Positions held at CSM and dates of promotion
- Research interests
- Notable distinctions

The Provost and President will consider nominations and submit their recommendation regarding the emeritus appointment to the Board of Trustees for a final decision.

Faculty receiving Emeritus titles are recognized during the April Awards Celebration.
